⚠️ Unavailable shares

To help detect and prevent fraud, newly deposited funds received by electronic bank transfer or check are subject to a 7-calendar-day hold. During this period, trading with these holding funds is limited based on the type of asset you have.

- Up to 100% of your uncollected funds are available to purchase Vanguard mutual funds, including money market settlement fund shares
- Purchases for other securities, including Vanguard ETFs, may be limited or restricted during the 7-day-calendar hold

While you can exchange or redeem mutual fund shares at any time, redemption proceeds may not be available for you to withdraw for up to seven calendar days. To redeem shares and have a check for the redemption proceeds sent to you after the hold expires, please contact us.

Before you place a trade, review your order status page.

Intraday prices are generally provided for stocks, ETFs, and options on a delayed basis during market hours. Prices are delayed at least 20 minutes. If an intraday price is not available, the price displayed will reflect the previous business day's close. For mutual funds and fixed income holdings, the prices displayed are generally the previous business day's closing price.

Market data provided by FactSet .

Vanguard funds not held in a brokerage account are held by The Vanguard Group, Inc., and are not protected by SIPC.

* Brokerage assets are held by Vanguard Brokerage Services, a division of Vanguard Marketing Corporation, member FINRA and SIPC

 The Vanguard Cash Plus Account is a brokerage account offered by Vanguard Brokerage Services, a division of Vanguard Marketing Corporation, member FINRA and SIPC. Under the Sweep Program, Eligible Balances swept to Program Banks are not securities: they are not covered by SIPC, but are eligible for FDIC insurance, subject to applicable limits. Money market funds held in the account are not guaranteed or insured by the FDIC, but are securities eligible for SIPC coverage. See the Vanguard Bank Sweep Products Terms of Use (PDF) and Program Bank list (PDF) for more information.

Your account may be subject to various restrictions to reduce the risk of fraud. Your transactions may be subject to a 7-day holding period as well as daily transaction limits. Generally, new accounts will be subject to a 60-day holding period for cash and check deposits. During this time, you can invest with this cash, but cash deposits into your account may only be returned to the bank account from which the cash was withdrawn. After the holding period is complete, your funds will be fully available to transfer or withdraw.

The bank sweep APY (annual percentage yield) presented includes a 0.25% boost effective through September 30, 2026. APY will vary and may change at any time.

Balance data may be unavailable for temporary periods of time. In these cases, it may not reflect the complete value of your account(s). Balance information is for educational purposes only and should not be solely relied upon in making future investment decisions.

Your cost basis related to any security you hold refers to the price you paid for that security and can be adjusted by items such as return of capital, commission, or transaction fees.

- When covered securities are sold, Vanguard reports the cost basis to you and the IRS.
- When noncovered securities are sold, Vanguard does not report the cost basis to the IRS. You are responsible for tracking and reporting the cost basis of your securities.

In cases where the cost basis of a security is unknown, Vanguard will assume a cost basis of zero; therefore, the lot's gain will be equal to the proceeds.

Vanguard does not provide tax advice. Please contact your tax advisor with questions related to cost basis or other tax matters.

For outside investments you entered manually, the price displayed depends on the type of security you entered. Prices for stocks and mutual funds are updated automatically whenever you open or refresh the page. Prices for bonds, short-term investments, or "other" holdings must be updated manually by you.

Data and information about your outside investments that are updated automatically are provided by Yodlee. Vanguard isn't responsible for the accuracy of this information.
